

1. BLACKOUT TIME - Monday - 31 July, 1944 - 2220 hours to 0550 hours.
Tuesday - 1 August, 1944 - 2219 hours to 0552 hours.

2. OFFICER OF THE DAY

31 July, 1944 - 2nd Lt FLOYD WILLIAMS, JR.	O-2040986
1 August, 1944 - Capt JOSEPH A. LANOTTA	O-447077
2 August, 1944 - 1st Lt EARL W. RUDOLPH	O-1348301
3 August, 1944 - Capt ARNOLD SHERMAN	O-467154
4 August, 1944 - 1st Lt ROBERT H. DEAN	O-567860
5 August, 1944 - W/O WILLIAM FIFE, JR.	O-2104903
6 August, 1944 - Capt SAM S. McWELLEY	O-909455

3. OFFICER IN CHARGE OF LIBERTY RUN

31 July, 1944 - 1st Lt DUDLEY J. ALLEN	O-447669
1 August, 1944 - Capt ROBERT B. PHILLIPS, JR.	O-560223
2 August, 1944 - Capt ALFRED C. GUILLY	O-561062
3 August, 1944 - Capt STARBUCK L. JARROLD	O-409184
4 August, 1944 - Capt HOWARD ARMONSON	O-437475
5 August, 1944 - Capt SYMOUR D. RUSBY	O-509699
6 August, 1944 - Capt WILEY W. GLASS	O-448461

4. NOTICE

Money for Stars and Stripes subscriptions will be collected in the Special Services Office on Wednesday, 2 August, 1944.

5. POST EXCHANGE

Effective the 1 August, 1944, there will be a Watch Repair and Film Developing Service available at the Post Exchange.

Xmas shopping may now be done at the Post Exchange. Ask to see the Catalogue, which contains many new items. Last day to place Xmas orders is 15 September, 1944. Shop early to avoid the rush.

Orders are also taken for War Saving Bonds. Delivery in six weeks guaranteed. SAVE FOR THE FUTURE.

IS YOUR NAME
IN THE BOOK?

W. J. Mott
J. W. MOTT,
Capt., C/S,
Asst. Adjutant.

The Book?.....

The book will be composed of handsome loose-leaf vellum pages provided for signature of Bond Purchasers. At the close of the Campaign, these pages are to be forwarded to the Eighth Air Force. The pages will be bound, forming a book, and will be sent to General H. H. Arnold to be placed in the Archives. The other documentary materials which will tell the story of the Eighth Air Force.

