SUGGESTION BOX:

SUGGESTION: "Where in the Hell is our P.R.O. Officer? Suggest the GENLDS be given a little publicity. On this date the club has played 36 games, winning 29 and losing 7. During the past three days the club defeated the UK Base All-Stars on two occasions. This alone is worth a small line down in the left hand corner of the Stars and Stripes or Yank. The members of the club play ball in addition to their regular duties and furnish entertainment to hundreds of us on the station. Don't you think they deserve a little publicity too?"

ANSWER: The complete history of the Station's Baseball Team during the Baseball season has been compiled and forwarded to Stars and Stripes and Yank magazine. Home town releases on all team members have been cleared for publication in their home town newspapers. Unfortunately, the Station Public relations Officer has no say in the editorial policy of the Stars and Stripes and/or Yank-magazine but every effort is being made to get the story published. All sports stories in the above mentioned paper and magazine are written by Staff writers and are not printed from P.R.O. sources.
