2. SEVENTH WAR LOAN BOND DRIVE:

Buy War Bonds now and help make your future easier. Buying War Savings Bonds accomplishes a two-fold purpose. A War Savings Bond holder gives himself a financial claim on security for the future and also aids our government in the prosecution of the total war effort.

The Bonds you buy now help pay for the total war effort as the war is prosecuted, leaving less to be paid for through taxes in the future.

It is the desire of our Supreme Commander, General EISENHOWER, and of the Commander of this Theater, that each of us purchase as many War Savings Bonds as is possible. Let each of us get in there and pitch by buying at least one Bond no matter how small. (OVER)

DAILY BULLETIN NUMBER 137, Ft. AEF Station 111, 20 18 May/45 continued:

3. War Savings Bonds may be purchased for cash at the Station Finance Office, or at the Post Exchange. Class "B" allotments for War Bonds can be executed by requesting such an allotment in the allotment section located in the Enlisted Men's personnel section at station headquarters. Purchasers of ten (10.00) dollar War Bonds and twenty-five (25.00) dollar War Bonds need not obtain an authorization from their orderly room prior to making their cash purchase of these Bonds.
