Daily Bulletin Number 253, No. 117 Station 111, dt 11 Sep 45, continued:

SUGGESTION BOX:

SUGGESTION:

1. That accumulated (.... in the vernacular of the streets) is cleaned out of the toilet seats in "B" Mess.

2. That the room used for storage of toilet articles in "B" Mess is cleaned daily.

3. That toilets, wet and dry, are cleaned and kept clean daily.

Note: Generous use of chloride of lime on the floor and in the 'Honey buckets' would reduce the naturally unpleasant odor in dry latrines.

4. That living quarters are painted inside when necessary.

5. That Officers and EM display more of the good natured brotherhood which exists between men."

BROTHERHOOD OF MEN

REPLY: Para 1 and 3. The toilets in "B" Mess are cleaned daily and are kept in the best possible condition. Personnel at the mess are not responsible for the actions of officers and gentlemen(?). The officer in charge of the mess and the enlisted personnel who work there will greatly appreciate the help of all in an effort to keep the latrines clean.

Para 2. The room used for storage is cleaned daily but the officers who use it throw paper, etc. on the floor. Suggest a little cooperation here too.

Para 4. Most of the living quarters on the Station have been painted within the last year. No paint is available now for that purpose.

Para 5. Is an excellent suggestion and is published for the benefit of all concerned.
